

BD Services Offered

Outside of your product maintenance agreement, BD has a wide service portfolio available to address any additional needs your organization may have. Services are delivered by BD experts in their respective field, not limited to engineers and clinicians.

Staffing shortages are taking place in tandem with patient overflow, and BD offers services which can help ease your mind and lessen your workload. Services include per diem support in 8-hour increments as well as End User and System Manager Trainings, tailored to meet your unique needs.

For more information on how to contract the per diem support or training services listed below, please contact @gmb-gcs-service-contract-support@bd.com or your local sales executive.
