Dear Valued Customer,

Subject: Important Updates to BD Product IFUs and Ordering Information

Dear Customer,

BD Specimen Management remains dedicated to delivering the highest quality product experience to our customers. We are writing to share important updates regarding Instructions for Use (IFU) for select BD products, aimed at enhancing service and supporting our sustainability goals.

As part of BD's commitment to sustainability, we are reducing the quantity of paper IFUs included in the packaging of certain SKUs (see Table 2). Currently, a paper IFU is provided at the box quantity level. Beginning in October 2025, BD will transition to including one paper IFU per case quantity level instead. Please refer to Table 1 for detailed information on this change.

The content of the IFUs remains unchanged and continues to be available electronically at www.eIFU.bd.com, ensuring uninterrupted access for healthcare professionals. If internet access is unavailable, users may contact BD directly to request a mailed physical copy.

You are receiving this notice because you have purchased BD Vacutainer® Push Button Blood Collection Sets and/or BD Vacutainer® UltraTouch™ Push Button Blood Collection Sets within the past 12 months.

We encourage you to coordinate with your local BD representative to ensure a smooth transition and avoid any disruption to your ordering process.

Thank you for your continued partnership.

Sincerely,
Cristina Salas
Vice President, US Marketing & Commercial Excellence
BD Specimen Management
